BOMBARDED AGAIN!

Brazil's Capital by the Rebel Fleet.

CLEVELAND BY STEWART.

Debate Opened on the Federal Election Bill.

Again Bombarded.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—A cable from Rio dated at 10 o'clock this morning says: The rebel squadron has resumed the bombardment of the capital of Brazil this morning. The fort replied to the fire. The ships ceased firing and retired out of range. The damage to Rio de Janeiro is said to be very heavy.
The war ships are also reported to have suffered from the fire of the forts, but full particulars are unavailable.

In Congress.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—When the senate met this morning the repeal men were caught napping by Stewart, who observed that there was no quorum and questioned the propriety of the senate proceeding. A stay of proceedings was necessary until the members stroled in, one by one, to a sufficient number to constitute a quorum.

Dubois, of Idaho, created a sensation by offering the following resolution, which went over till tomorrow:

Whereas, Several sovereign states being without the full representation in the senate to which they are entitled, be it

Resolved, That the consideration of legislation relating to the federal election laws, the tariff and financial matters, materially affecting partially unrepresented states, be postponed in the senate until Monday, January 15, 1894, to enable the states of Washington, Montana and Wyoming to have the influence and protection in the senate guaranteed each sovereign state by the constitution of the United States.

The resolution was laid on the table, yeas 27; nays 19.

The repeal bill was then taken up.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—A two weeks' debate on the bill to repeal the federal election laws was opened in the house this morning. The galleries were well filled, and an unusual number of negroes were present, showing their interest in the matter. Tucker, of Virginia, author of the bill, opened for the Democrats.

Tucker paid his respects to John I.
Davenport, whose atrocities, he said, were more infamous than those of the Duke of Abos.

Perkins addressed the senate in opposition to the repeal bill, after which Stewart took the floor. He read from a paper articles on the president's alleged rebuke to the senate.

Palmer, a Democrat of Illinois, asked whether it was consistent with proper relations between the senate and the president to read in the senate grave charges against the executive, for which he (Stewart) would not be responsible.

Stewart said it was consistent for him as a senator to defend the senate when the press said the president was rebuking the senate and calling senators criminals.

"Let his friends deny that he has used patronage to control legislation," said Stewart. "Let them make it clear how the opinion of congress has been changed and how the overwhelming majority in favor of free coinage in congress had been changed to a good monometallist majority."

Hops in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Hops are steady and unchanged on very light business. Brewers and exporters are doing almost nothing and the uncertainty of the future restricts the purchases to merely immediate needs.

peated robberies the railroad companies have decided to arm their men

The Administration on Exclusion.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Great interest centered in the session of the house today, as it was known a communication would be received stating the position of the president and administration on the Chinese exclusion question.
The position occupied by the administration regarding the execution of the Geary execution law was definitely settled by the communication today sent to the house. The letter contains copies of the instructions sent to collectors of customs by the treasury department under date of May.

4. They are instructed to take no steps looking to the enforcement of the deportation act until further notice.
Under the same date the attorney-general instructs the attorneys and marshalls not to proceed except on order of the court. With regard to the Chinese who obtained admission to the United States under false representation, the letter directs the officers of the department to use every effort to enforce the law by arrest and prosecution.

There is also a copy of a telegram of Attorney-general Olney, dated September—Instructing the district attorney at San Francisco, in view of the fact that no grounds exist for carrying out the law, to have such Chinese held liable to deportation to be discharged from custody until such provision is made.

Doctors Imprisoned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—Dr.
Joseph von Werthorn and Edward P.
Driscoll and Harry J. Gray, a young man from Lincoln, Cal., have been arrested and jailed on the charge of the murder of Miss Clara Matthews of Lincoln. The crime resulted from criminal operations performed by the two doctors at the instigation of Gray.

Convict Coal Miners.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Governor Turney has approved the agreement between the penitentiary commissioners and the East Tennessee Land Co. for the purchase by the state of 9000 acres of coal land in Morgan county for $80,000, and upon the expiration of the present penitentiary lease, the state will go into the coal mining business.

Miss Gilmour's Murderers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—The sensational murder case took a new turn today, when the marriage contract between Dr. E. F. West and Annie Staley, who the police say was West's accomplice in the murder of Miss Gil-mour, was recorded. The marriage evidently was contracted so that Annie Staley could not be compelled to testify.

Expires To-Night.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 26.—Judge Jenkins this morning fixed the time for the termination of the lease of the Wisconsin Central by the Northern Pacific at midnight to-night.

Banking Matters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Statistics compiled from official data show that from January to September, this year, 569 state and private banks in the United States failed and 72 resumed business, in the same time 155 national banks failed 79 of which have resumed; of the state and private banks, 26 suspended in California and 18 have resumed; 16 suspended in Oregon and 9 resumed; 14 suspended in Washington, of which one has resumed.

BISMARCK IS BETTER.

His Hatred of the Emperor Made Manifest.

ANOTHER FRANCO-GERMAN WAR

May be Brought on By the Young Emperor.

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—The arrival of Count Herbert Bismarck and Count Rantzau, his brother-in-law, in Kissingen yesterday, is expected to help much in bringing the emperor and Prince Bismarck together. Many hope, however, that stronger influence will prevail and the reconciliation will soon be accomplished. Emperor Franz Joseph, king of Saxony, has sent to Kissingen sympathetic inquiries after the ex-chancellor's health, and has suggested the desirability that Prince Bismarck make advances to the emperor. The grand duke of Baden and the king of Wurtemberg are working with energy to the same end.

Still Bismarck holds back, seemingly reluctant to answer the emperor's advances before extorting such homage as no sovereign has ever paid a subject.

Telegrams from Kissingen represent him as irritated and suspicious. He is said to regard the attention now bestowed on him by the crowned heads as too ostentatious. They are suggestive, he thinks, of a plan to extinguish him entirely as a political factor. He is recovering his strength quite rapidly now and is sensitive about being treated as an honored member. He means to reassert himself as a powerful element in German politics. This is the sentiment on which his son-in-law, with others of their circle, rely to keep him on the old line of opposition to the government. It will bitterly disappoint the whole country, regardless of party, if they succeed and the emperor's overtures be rejected.

The newspapers of all political tendencies praise the emperor for having taken the initiative and agree in hoping that the price will give the nation the pleasure of witnessing the end of the feud between Berlin and Frederickshagen.

According to the late dispatches from Kissingen the text of Bismarck's reply to the emperor's message remained unpublished. Its general tenor is believed to indicate that the efforts to reconcile the two men will be futile.
The German correspondents who have returned from Gueus give an insight into the maneuvers hardly in accordance with the eulogistic telegrams of last week. The United press special correspondent says that the greatest obstacles were opposed to anything like independent reports.

The strongest censorship was exercised by the military press bureau. If an unpleasant incident was found in a correspondent's copy he was summoned at once to Colonel Aupiais, chief of the press bureau, and informed that he must leave out the objectionable passage or give up his passes. Among the incidents thus kept out of print was a block in maneuvers on the opening day. The commanders of the army of the north had developed operations so unfortunately that there was no room to unfold and develop their whole strength. The army got fixed between two woods and had to retreat eventually without being able to bring forward a division, which, therefore, was condemned to observe in idleness the discomfiture of the others. The retreat was made in confusion to the chagrin of the officers in command. At another time a line of carriages containing ministers, ambassadors and many members of the court, got in the way of the regiment of sharpshooters, who were facing a cavalry attack.

Emperor Franz Joseph, in a towering passion, rode up to the officers of the regiment and shouted "remove these carriages instantly." Emperor William, despite his words of praise in public often found the movements of the troops in formation too slow. Several times he became impatient and to hide his feelings from the Austrian emperor rode off at a furious pace to another part of the field. Throughout the maneuvers Emperor William was feverishly active. Every night after the fatigue of the day he worked long past 12 o'clock with Counselor Von Kiderlein and Dr. Lucanus, writing dispatches to Berlin and reading the correspondence of the day.

Count Moener, German ambassador to France, returned to Paris on Saturday after several weeks' vacation.
Signor Rousman Italy's ambassador to France will go back to his post tomorrow.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

The Austro-Hungarian ambassador to France will start for Paris on October 8th.

The Russo-German tariff conference will open on October 2, with a fair prospect of reaching an agreement. Germany is ready to concede the lower rates on Russian cereals in return for a reduction of the Russian tariff on manufactures of iron, etc.; immense quanties of grain are piled up at Russian ports; notably Odessa, awaiting shipment. Much Russian grain however, is leaking into Germany by way of Antwerp and Rotterdam. The Odessa dealers are especially eager for the success of the conference.

Chinese Riot.

LA GRANDE, Or., Sept. 26.—The anti Chinese agitation which has been going on in this country for the past two weeks has culminated. An armed mob of 200 met outside the city limits at midnight, marched to the Chinese quarters, and after looting the houses marched the Chinamen to the edge of the city and ordered them to leave.

The immediate cause of the action of the mob is said to be a meeting at Red Paper school house at Sand Ridge, twelve miles north of this city, yesterday at which inflammatory speeches were made by one Esteb, attorney, and others. At this meeting the mob was organized and moved toward La Grande led by H. C. Cotner, a rancher, and Jas. Truesdell, a saloon keeper, gaining recruits as it advanced until, when it reached the city, there were at least 200 men in line.

Marshals McLachlan and Andrey, Constable Walden and Deputy Sheriff Lindgreen attempted to quell the riot, but as it was unexpected and no preparation had been made they were soon overpowered. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the ringleaders.

The feature which is causing the most talk today is the heroism shown by Mrs. Trumble, wife of the Baptist Chinese missionary, who was alone in the house with her daughter. About thirty Chinamen had sought refuge at her house. When the mob demanded their delivery, she appeared with a Winchester and announced that the first man to enter her house would be shot. The mob dispersed.

Murdered by Anarchists.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 26.—At Calamity, Pa., a small mining town, last night, Moen Lalson and August Brice attacked August Reece and his wife.
They shot the woman to death and beat the husband into insensibility and left him for dead. Lalson was captured, but Brice escaped. The murderers are anarchists and plotted to go to Canada to blow up public buildings. The Reeces decided to put them out of the way.

THE GREAT REVOLUTIONS.

1600—English commonwealth ended by the restoration of the monarchy under Charles II.

1688—The Orange revolution in England. Flight of James II and accession of William and Mary.

1790—Peter II, the last of the Roma-noffs in direct line, deposed and crown given to Anne of Courland.

1770—Great struggle for Grecian independence. General rebellion in Greece and the European Turkish provinces.
Unsuccessful.

1772—Liberal movement in Sweden suppressed and an absolute despotism established.

1772—The continual civil wars, revolutions and counter revolutions in Poland so weakened the state that in 1795 it fell an easy prey to Russia, Austria and Prussia. The first partition treaty was made and acted on in this year, the Poles revolted, and an attempt was made to establish a reform in the state. It failed, and the second partition treaty in 1793 put an end to Poland.

1775—The war of American independence began; ended by the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, 1781. This was the most momentous of all revolutions, since by its success the people of Europe and of the whole world were inspired by a zeal for liberty and self government.
It was the first great blow struck for modern liberty.

1789—The French revolution began with the meeting of the states general.
The great French wars began in 1793 with the first coalition and lasted until the downfall of the empire in 1815.

1790—Revolution in Hungary against Austrian domination. A war resulting in the independence of the Hungarians.

comedy in which Johnstone Bennett will be seen.

new play by Ian Robertson, called "A Play in Little."

Nat Goodwin is reported to contemplate playing the title role in "David Garrick" later in the season.
Manager Augustus Pitou has a new sensational melodrama which is to be produced in New York city at an early date.

Sutton Vane, the author of "The Span of Life," has completed a new melo-her marriage was widely known on the burlesque stage as Lizzie Webster.

John Fowler and Ernest C. Whitton, who are suing W. H. Crane for $3,000 damages for not producing their play "Dakota," announce that they have sold the piece to Roland Reed.

M. B. Curtis wants his experience while under the charge of murder dramatized and has sent the evidence in his trials to a London playwright, whom he has commissioned to construct the piece.
Minnie Seligman-Cutting's new plays are "Margaret Byng," by F. C. Phillips, author of "As in a Looking Glass," an emotional drama, and "Gladys," a combination of emotional and comedy ele-

New England, who is also superintendent of the Norfolk and Worcester, has re-enforced brake in use on several first ward to with great interest by the railroad fraternity.
